Congratulations Members: We Are Now Property Owners!

We are happy to announce that we closed on our new building on October 19, and are now officially property owners! We will be sprucing up our new building and moving through the month of November. We will be closed on Saturday, December 2nd for moving and will reopen at our new location, 612 Bedford Street, Stamford on Monday, December 4th!

Please note that we have a parking lot behind the building on North St. If driving on Bedford ST, turn left on North St. directly after our building, then left into the parking lot. Our office hours will remain the same!

Kathy Herstory Induction

A big congratulations to our CEO Kathy Chartier for being honored as a 2023 inductee in America's Credit Union Museum's "Credit Union Women Making History: Herstory" exhibit. Due to the remarkable response in 2022, the museum has established an annual recognition program to celebrate outstanding women in the movement. Kathy's contributions exemplify the shared credit union mission, reinforcing its collaborative strength.

We are very proud of her for all her trajectory, commitment, accomplishments, support, advocacy, and inspiration to the credit union movement!
